

State Of Mississippi

Division of Instruction

Certificate of High School Equivalence

This is to certify that Walter Clifton Davidson has taken tests of General Educational Development provided through the United States Armed Forces Institute, Veterans Testing Service, or approved General Educational Development Testing Centers of the American Council on Education with test scores comparable to those made by high school graduates and is hereby awarded this Certificate of High School Equivalence, the legal equivalent of a high school diploma, as authorized by the State Board of Education.

Given at Jackson, Mississippi, this 4th day of January 1980

Certificate No. 75178

C. Holladay

Chairman, State Board of Education

William C. Bot
State Administrator, GED Testing Program

Ralph Brewer
Director, Division of Instruction